Appomattox 14 Gretna 7

The Raiderettes recovered from their loss to Amherst County by pounding Gretna with fourteen hits and fourteen runs to pick up win number seven against one loss this season.

Annette Carter and Susan Godsey each had a perfect day at the plate batting three for three. Carter scored three and batted in five while Godsey scored four and batted in one. Every Raiderette had at least one hit in handing Gretna their sixth loss of the year against three wins.

The Hens made one threat, scoring six runs in the fifth inning but a Raiderette double play ended the inning.

AMHERST 8 APPOMATTOX 7

Amherst County, with two home runs, scored four runs on four hits in the first inning and held on to hand the Raiderettes their first defeat of the season in softball on the Appomattox field last week.

After spotting Amherst six runs, Appomattox picked up three in the third, gave up two more to the Lancerettes, then came back with two in the sixth and two in the seventh to make it close. The tying run was at third and the winning run at second when Annette Carter lined out to short to end the game.

Johnna Belter (5-1) took the loss for Appomattox.

Annette Carter had two of Appomattox's five hits.
